

Today in Pictures, June 2, 2022

Large iceberg drifts off the coast of Newfoundland, Health officials fumigated the largest cemetery in Peru, Britain's Queen Elizabeth II look-alike and other pictures from around the world in Today in Pictures.

PUBLISHED 2022年6月2日 下午8:06 SGT

f t ...

People help place artist Chen Weiming's latest sculpture, "CCP Virus II" on a concrete pedestal at Liberty Sculpture Park in Yermo, California, on June 1, 2022, alongside other sculptures by the artist. - A new sculpture "CCP Virus II", made of steel and weighing 10 tons, was displayed today before the weekend commemoration marking the anniversary of June 4, 1989 in Tiananmen. Chen Weiming unveiled his original sculpture "CCP Virus" here last June, but it was destroyed a month later, burned to the ground. In March 2022, federal prosecutors charged five men acting on behalf of the Chinese government with destroying the original sculpture. PHOTO: AFP

Save more every month with our annual plan: unlimited access, better price.

FEATURED PLANS

ST ONE DIGITAL - ANNUAL

~~$9.90~~ $4.95/month

Get offer

Billed at $59.40 for the first year, $118.80/year thereafter.

ST ONE DIGITAL - MONTHLY

$9.90/month

Subscribe now

No lock-in contract.